

22nd International Congress of Young Medical Scientists

REGULATIONS FOR ON-LINE INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPANTS

Poznań, 2-4 June 2022

§1. General regulations

1. The 22nd International Congress of Young Medical Scientists, further named the Congress, is a forum for exchanging knowledge and scientific experience and competition among the best scientific papers of students and young medical scientists.
2. The Congress will be held from 2nd to 4th of June 2022. Original Paper Sessions will be held on the 3rd of June, while Case Report Sessions and Golden Session - on the 4th of June.
3. The Conference is organized by the Students' Scientific Society of Poznań University of Medical Sciences (from now on referred to as STN).
4. Concerning the participation in the Congress, the general regulations apply. These are formulated in a separate document, while this file presents exceptions that should be obeyed by international participants that will participate in the Congress on-line.
5. An international participant is a student that studies abroad, at a University outside Poland. English Division students at Polish Universities are not regarded as international and therefore should take part in the Congress in person.
6. International active participants have a possibility to attend the Congress on-line. Therefore, the Congress will be held in hybrid form.
7. Polish students that are currently studying abroad thanks to Erasmus+ Program can participate in on-line form, but are obliged to justify this decision by submitting a supporting document.
8. We encourage all interested international students to take part in the Congress in person and therefore have the whole experience.
9. All other §1. General regulations apply as in the original document.

§2. Abstract guidelines

1. All general regulations concerning abstract apply to international participants.

§3. Principles and forms of presentations

1. The general rules describing principles and forms of presentations apply to on-line participants.
2. The platform used for on-line part of each session is Google Meet.
3. All on-line participants will be sent a link to the session.

4. The on-line part of the session will take place AFTER the presentations of all on-site participants. There is no need to log in prior the live session start, however, we advise you to log in earlier to the Session Room.
5. The Organizers are not responsible for any problems from the participant side, in particular an internet connection or other technical issues.
6. The presenting author is obligated to be alone in his/her room. Any other person cannot physically stay or enter the room in which the presenting person is staying during the time of presentation, discussion and in between. The participant may not receive any assistance from other individuals. The participant must be always ready to present their whole room to the jury.
7. The presenting person must be equipped with a computer/tablet with operable camera and microphone. The camera should show the view of the participant including the whole face and upper limbs. The presenting person is not allowed to move out from the camera view and mute the microphone during the whole time of presentation, discussion and the time between presentation and discussion.
8. The participant must agree to be recorded during the Congress.
9. In cases where cheating is suspected, the Organizer is allowed to review the footage of the session and decertify the cheater.
- 10. In case the presentation transmission is interrupted and less than 60% of given time has passed, the participant is allowed to come out again at the end of the current session. If more than 60% of the given time has passed, the presentation is evaluated and the participant is not allowed to answer the questions at the end of the current session.

§4. Terms of competition during the Conference

1. The general rules describing terms of competition during the Conference apply to on-line participants.

§5. Golden Session

1. All general rules concerning Golden Session apply to on-line participants.
2. If an on-line participant wins their scientific session, they are obliged to take part in Golden Session. Generally, they should abide §3. Principles and forms of presentations.
- 3. The Golden Session will start with the presentations of potential on-line participants.

§6. Registration and Fees

1. All general rules concerning Registration and Fees apply as stated in the general regulations.
- 2. We accept only active on-line participants. There will not be any video live transmission for interested passive participants.

§7. Participation: possibilities and rules

1. All general rules concerning participation apply as stated in the general regulations except the below mentioned points.
2. Active on-line participants should choose “Silver Active” type of participation and pay the specified fee.
3. On-line participants will not be evaluated on their attendance to the workshops and/or keynote lectures. They will be given a certificate if they present their work abiding by the regulations of the participation.

§8. Final Points

1. All general rules apply as stated in the general regulations.

§9. Privacy Policy

1. All general rules apply as stated in the general regulations.

